

IF YOU WERE ISSUED A SUMMONS THAT WAS DISMISSED
DURING THE YEARS COVERED BY THIS LAWSUIT,
YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO MONEY

You must file a claim by September 6, 2017 to be included in this Class Action Settlement.

1. What is this lawsuit about? Am I included?

- This is a proposed Settlement of a Class Action lawsuit.
- The City of New York (“City”) has agreed to pay up to $150 dollars per incident to people who were issued a summons without probable cause that was later dismissed for legal or facial insufficiency.
- If you received a summons from a New York City Police Officer on or after May 25, 2007 that was dismissed for legal or facial insufficiency you may be entitled to money.

2. What does the Settlement provide?

- The Settlement would entitle each Class Member to a share of the $75 Million Class Fund (after payment of up to $1.5 Million for administrative costs, service awards to the Named Plaintiffs; and $18.5 Million towards attorneys’ fees and costs).
- You are entitled to recover for each summons that you received on different dates and/or times. This means that if you received multiple summonses at the same time, you are only entitled to recover once. The amount Class Members receive depends on how many people file valid Claim Forms, however, in no instance will any Class Member be compensated in an amount greater than $150 per summons.

3. How do I get money from the Settlement?

- You must fill out and mail a completed Claim Form by September 6, 2017 to be eligible for any payment.
- To get a Claim Form, go to www.nypdsummons.com or contact the administrator at the address or number below. Include your name, date of birth, address, social security number or ITIN (if any), Medicare Number, and phone (if any) on all requests to the Administrator.
